MONOTONIZING FEMININE LABOR

"Women of this country must awaken," says Frank. "If the idle rich women continue to employ sewing maids, they will in all probability be scrubbing floors or working in munition factories within the next year."

It is not quite so horrible as that. But the evil to which Mr. MatheWS calls attention is, grave enough. Everybody knows that the labor supply is not sufficient to meet our war needs. Our usual economic activities. The supply is bound to diminish as long as the war lasts, because of the transformation of masculine labor into fighting staff and because of the ever-growing demands of our war industries.

The thinning ranks of masculine labor are being filled by feminine recruits. Before we get through with this business every woman capable of performing useful service with brain or hand going to be needed, as well as every man. Anybody, therefore, who maintains women workers in unnecessary and unproductive forms of work is guilty of unpatriotic conduct.

It is just as selfish to appropriate for one's own use more labor than one needs as it is to waste wheat or sugar in time of scarcity. The moral is obvious. Girls and women should not be retained in domestic service if they can be dispensed with. Every woman who employs servants should seriously ask herself whether their service is a necessity or a luxury, and act accordingly.

SOLDIERS' CLOTHES AND SHOES

One of the reasons given for the slowness of the war department in outfitting the men at the front is that the National Army has a larger physical average than previous armies have had. It is therefore necessary to provide larger sizes of clothing than usual. The commissary department was unprepared for that, because it expected that the drafted men would be smaller, if anything, than regular Army volunteers.

Moreover, the Selective Service recruits have shown a scandalous tendency to grow after they have been measured for their outfits. Dispatch from one of the front-line camps recently announced that the soldiers had gained an average of 15 pounds apiece. That was fine, as a tribute to the salutary effects of army food, exercise and discipline—but it made their suits and overcoats too tight.

Similar reports are received regarding the shoe problem. Formerly the largest stock shoe for the army was No. 12. Now the quartermaster has had to add Nos. 13 and 14 to his stock. Bigger men have bigger feet. And it is found that marching makes a man's feet grow and spread so that he soon needs a size or two larger than before.

This situation, however, is no cause for lamentation. Big bodies and big feet are regarded as fine military assets, when they mean strength and health as they do in this case. And nobody will begrudge Sammy the extra cloth and shoe leather.

Nobody would imagine there was any lack of coal, to look at the carloads clattering up all the railroads. Neither would anybody imagine there was any scarcity of ears, to see all the sidings jammed with empties.

OLD CONNECT CHICAGO WITH NEW YORK

The Type Used in One Year to Publish Endorsements of Doan's Kidney Pills.

Of the many kidney remedies on the market today, none other is recommended like Doan's Kidney Pills. Forty thousand benefited people gladly testify in the newspapers of their own towns. Forty-five hundred American newspapers publish this home proof of Doan's merit. The type used in one year to tell this wonderful story would make a solid column of metal twice as high as the world's highest mountain. Placed end to end the line of type would reach from New York to Chicago. These miles of good words told by 40,000 tongues sound glad tidings to any Mayville sufferer who wants relief from kidney and bladder ills. Here's a Mayville case. Don't experiment. Use the remedy endorsed by people you know.

John J. Bramel, bookkeeper, Walnut street, Mayville, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been of great benefit to me and in fact, I attribute fourteen years of my life to them. It was in 1902 that I was suffering a great deal. After long use of Doan's Kidney Pills, I became well and had no bad effects for many years. Recently, however, I noticed my kidneys were not acting right and my system was generally weak. I knew it was a return of the trouble and I didn't lose any time in getting a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Channor's Drug Store. They again gave me the same good results and I consider them a wonderful medicine."

Mr. Bramel is only one of many Mayville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Mr. Bramel had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 60c all stores. ## A NOVEL TRADE DOCTRINE

Washington, January 6.—The Republican Publicity Association, through its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr., today gave out the following statement at its Washington headquarters:

"An article emanating from one of the Democratic tax-supported publicity bureaus in Washington says: 'From the individual standpoint of the United States it is evident that the chance now presented for the development of close trade with both Canada and Mexico and the building up of a trade basis very hard to break down in after years is exceptional and unusual. Failure to take advantage of it now may result in growth of localized home industries which will later want protection from foreign competition.'"

"This is part and parcel of that very peculiar and novel Democratic declaration that to assure a continuance of our prosperity after the war we must bet our whole pile on export trade; that protection to home industries and preeminence in the American market for domestic goods is an obsolete notion; that we should keep open to our European and Oriental competitors the door to our home market where $25,000,000,000 worth of goods are annually consumed, while we go out and gobble up all the foreign trade on earth which, even with competition throttled by a world war netted us during the last fiscal year but $2,500,000,000, 70 per cent of which consisted of war goods."

"For the past two years the publicity has been fed up on this line of talk to encourage the development of our export trade is commendable, but to attempt to guilt a sane reader into the belief that it is perfectly feasible to give foreign competitors free access to our market while we go out to peddle our goods in the markets of the world is an insult to his intelligence. The United States, with its diversified industries, is not in a position to conduct a strictly mail-order business.

"It may be that the Democratic party offers the export trade nostrum in order to distract attention from a discussion of their old free-trade fallacy. But it will not down. The first guarantee which every American manufacturer must have is the ready sale for his goods in his home market. That means mill operation at minimum efficiency and the lower unit cost of production which will enable him to extend his sales in South America, Africa, the Far East—whenever he will find the Englishman, the German, or the Japanese in competition with him. Subject him on his native health to the competition of Europe and the Orient and what happened in 1894, what was happening before the war broke out in 1914, will most assuredly happen again, and again the Democratic party will be responsible for it."

A SINNER'S PRAYER

(By Elisha Hanson in Cartoons Magazine.)

One time when Representative Elston, of California, was hunting up in the mountains of his native state encountered a mule driver, with team stuck in the mud, who was best two-fisted cussier that ever a lip to it. Cussing blue, was not for him; he cussed 'all the color:

the rainbow, and did it harmoniously, too. Elston went on up the mountain wondering what a blackened person a man who would swear like that must be.

The following day a tree fell on a man in a nearby camp, and Elston went over to the hillside burial. No services had been arranged, not even a prayer. But when those in charge were about to lower into the grave the pine box in which the body reposed, and someone suggested that a few words be spoken, the cussing man stepped forward, removed his hat, and said:

"Lord, we are sending Thee another soul. Thou knowest the burden it had to bear; be merciful."

That prayer stands today; in Elston's opinion as one of the finest masterpieces of English it has been his privilege to hear.

THE CAVALRY OF THE CLOUDS

High above the squalor and the mud, so high in the firmament that they are not visible from earth, they fight out the eternal issues of right and wrong. They are struggling there by day, yea, and by night, in that titanic conflict between the great forces of light and darkness. They fight the foe, high up, and they fight him, low down. They skim like armed swallows along the front, taking in their fights men armed with rifle and with machine gun. They scattered infantry on the march, they destroy convoys, they spread dismay. Every flight is a romance, every record is an epic. They are knight errants of this war, without fear and without reproach. They recall the old legends of chivalry, not merely by the daring of individual exploits, but by the nobility of their spirit, and among the multitudes of heroes we must continuously thank the cavalry of the air.

Advice to Tobacco Growers

A large per cent of the TOBACCO being brought to market now is in an unmerchantable condition, due to SWOLLEN STEMS, and we would advise the GROWERS, if they have any SWOLLEN STEM TOBACCO in bulk, or hanging, that they rehang the TOBACCO in bulk, and allow the TOBACCO hanging to remain there until same is in proper condition for handling.

The CONDITION of a great deal of the TOBACCO selling on the warehouse floors, has hurt its sale from $3.00 to $5.00 per hundred at least, so YOU can readily see that it will be greatly to YOUR advantage to keep this TOBACCO at home until properly cured.

Good TOBACCOS, in prime condition, are bringing exceptionally good prices, as an example—the crop of Rubenacker & Marshall—1450 pounds, raised on 2-3 of an acre—averaged $6.19. Prices follow:

Leaf, 170 lbs.....	$40.00 per hundred	Red Leaf, 60 lbs.....	33.00 per hundred
Leaf, 285 lbs.....	41.00 per hundred	Red Leaf, 120 lbs.....	28.00 per hundred
Lugs, 155 lbs.....	36.00 per hundred	Flying, 20 lbs.....	28.00 per hundred
Lugs, 255 lbs.....	28.00 per hundred	Red Leaf, 45 lbs.....	29.50 per hundred
Trash, 150 lbs.....	36.00 per hundred	Tips, 35 lbs.....	21.50 per hundred
Trash, 100 lbs.....	36.00 per hundred	Tips, dmgs., 5 lbs.....	19.25 per hundred

Income Tax

A single person with an annual income of $1,000 and a married person with an annual income of $2,000 must make a true and accurate return of his or her income to the collector of internal revenue on or before March 1, 1918, or be subject to a penalty ranging from $20 to $1,000.

The Government's income tax officer will be at the Maysville postoffice from January 2 to January 12 inclusive, to assist all persons, subject to the income tax, in making out their returns. He will be supplied with all the necessary forms and will be able to answer all questions about the law.
